- Friends, relatives, acquaintances

How To Keep Your Network Alive

- Reach out when there are "milestones" such as holidays, birthdays, new job alerts on LinkedIn
- Reach out when you have news on your own career growth
- "Saw this, thought of you" - send articles, info about events, etc. on topics relevant to your connections' interests
- If there are relevant events your connection might be interested in, invite them to attend and ask to go to coffee beforehand
- If you see that your contact will be at the same event as you, reach out ahead of time to ensure you connect at the event

Remember:

- If someone is more senior than you, have the appropriate level of formality when you reach out
